Interested Parties and Legislative Committees

Extension of Time to File Briefs

The dates for filing opening and rebuttal briefs have been extended. Opening briefs correspondence are now due by February 14, 2005. Rebuttal briefs are now due by February 28, 2005.

Any interested party, affected state agency, or interested person may comment, submit briefs, or correspond with the Commission on this request for initial briefing and rebuttal comments. An original and one copy or an original and a pdf file shall be submitted to the Commission. The pdf file shall be emailed to www.csminfo.ca.gov. The comments will be posted on the Commission's website. This will satisfy all the service requirements under California Code of Regulations, title 2, section 1181.2.¹

All filings must comply with the following requirements:

- Assertions or representations must be supported by documentary evidence and must be authenticated by declarations under penalty of perjury signed by persons who are authorized and competent to do so and must be based upon the declarant's personal knowledge or information or belief.
- If the comments or briefs cite to federal or state laws, regulations, executive orders, or court decisions, copies of those documents must be included in the filing. Court decisions that involve the Board of Control or the Commission on State Mandates are exempt from this requirement.

This extension of time does not affect other dates set in the Notice of Reconsideration, Briefing, and Hearing Schedule:

March 17, 2005	Draft staff analysis will be posted to the Commission's website.
April 8, 2005	Comments on the draft staff analysis are due.
May 26, 2005	Hearing on the reconsideration.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Nancy Patton at (916) 323-8217.
